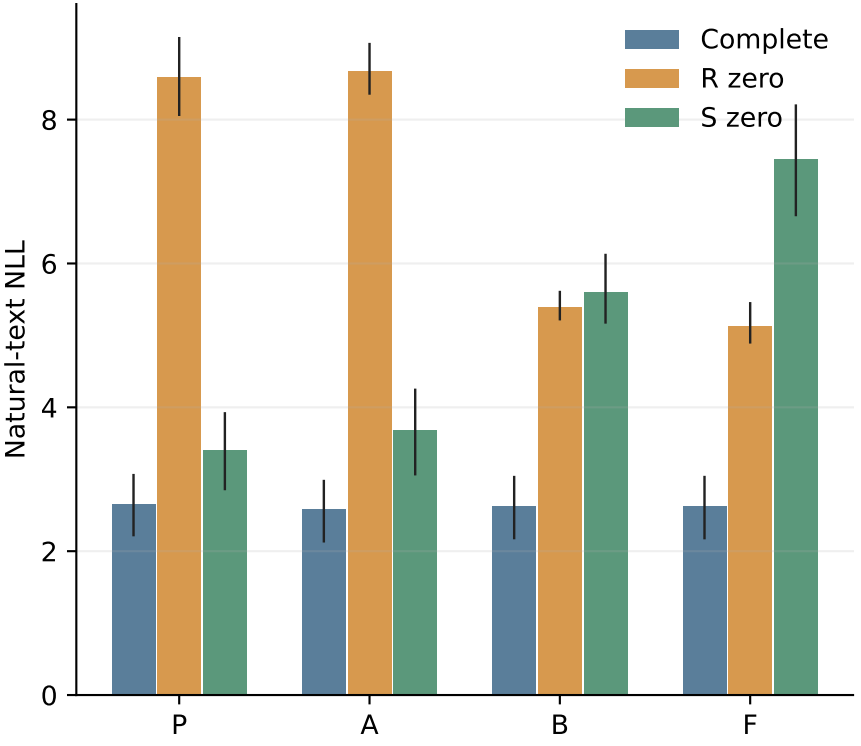
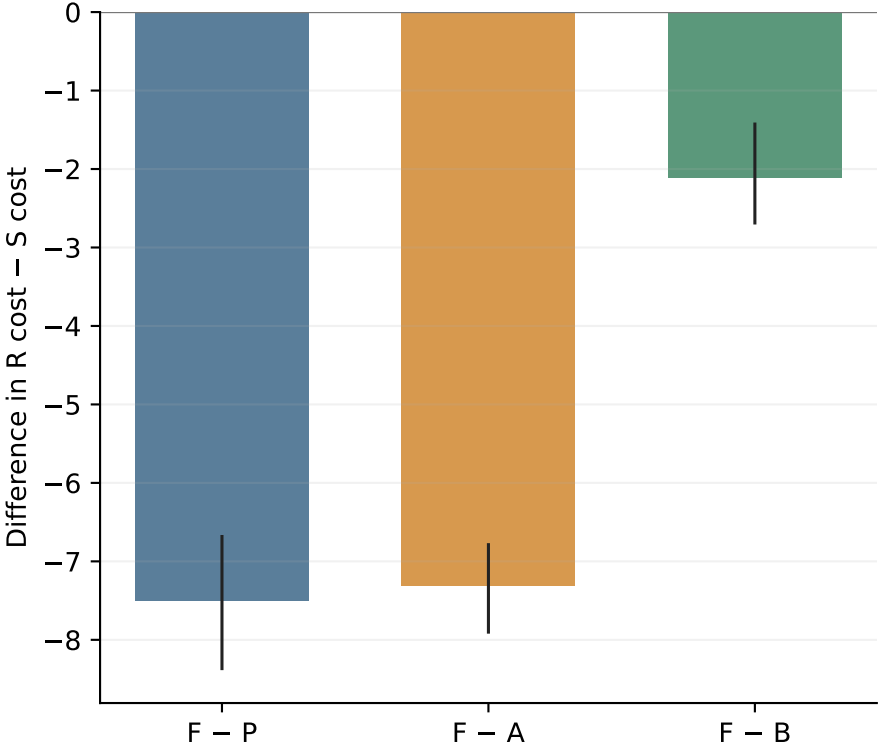
Natural text · absolute quality and allocation contrasts





Fixed public checkpoints and inputs; no new training. Input CIs do not quantify training-seed uncertainty.
F and B share the declared final EMO recipe; original initialization and optimizer/batch chains are unverified.
64 windows and 20 paired input-file clusters; 95% CI. Positive allocation contrast means a shift toward R dependence relative to S.